FROM THE PRESIDENT

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the members of MD TAMS for placing their trust in me for the next two years as their President. As usual, following Millard will be a tough act to follow. I'm sure that all of you will agree with me that MD TAMS would not be where it is today if it wasn't for Millard. Thanks Mill !!!

This issue of the MD TAMS JOURNAL is being issued under the new Editorship of Jane and Russ Sears. I sincerely hope that all of you will help Jane and Russ by writing an article or letter for the Journal. I've never tried to publish a journal of any kind, but I'm sure that it takes a lot of hard work, and any contribution the membership can make to the JOURNAL will be appreciated by our new Editors. I also want to say thanks to Vernon Taylor for all of his time and work on the JOURNAL in the past.

During the past several weeks, I have given some thought on some projects that I would like to see materialize in the near future. For instance, to have the Club Logo made into a tie tac or lapel pin. I have already started working on this idea and more will follow later as it develops. With Dave Schenkman working on the book for Maryland Tokens, I would like to see a book fund established. This fund would be money set aside strictly for to help cover the cost of publishing the book. One more item that I want to work on is the membership application form. This form needs some minor revisions that would make the Treasurer's job a lot easier.

As for the next meeting, it will be held at the Sheraton Hotel and Exhibition Center in New Carrollton, Md., in conjunction with the Metropolitan Washington Numismatic Association Show on Saturday, July 9, 1983 from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM. I hope that I will see there, and bring a friend with you. Hopefully, they will like our Club and become a member.

Bob

From The Editor

We would like to thank those of you who encouraged us to assume the position of Co-Editors of the Maryland TAMS Journal. Truly Vernon Taylor has done an excellent job as Editor and deserves much praise for his accomplishments.

As we undertake this new responsibility, we encourage each of you to contribute to your journal. One of the greatest pleasures in our hobby is sharing it with others. If our journal is to increase in excellence, each one of us must ask what we can do to help. Lengthy articles are great, but so are short ones. Many of us can remember the businesses that issued tokens or the event which was commemorated by a medal. Sometimes a piece illustrated and your memories of the store can be interesting to someone who didn't grow up where you did.

Let's share our hobby and we can all enjoy it even more than we do now.

Jane & Russ

FAREWELL MESSAGE FROM YOUR PAST PRESIDENT

Thanks to each of you who contributed to making my tenure as President of MD TAMS so fruitful and successful. Typical of any good progressive organization, it takes the cooperation and hard work of many and I just happen to be the lucky one to reap all the praises for your efforts. So, for that I humbly thank you!

MD TAMS has really been a rewarding experience for me! It's amazing how many new acquaintances and friends you meet through the common bond of collecting tokens and medals. Now, hopefully, I'll have a little more time to sit back and enjoy collecting and do some research on the tokens and medals I've accumulated over the last few years.

My sincere best wishes to the recently elected officers for a successful term and I wish them the same pleasures and satisfaction that I received during my term in office.

See you all at the next meeting!

Phil

HELP THE BOOK FUND

Your donation of cash and/or items of exonumia (to be auctioned) is needed. Our book on Maryland tokens will be very expensive to produce. We must begin building a book fund N O W to help pay the initial costs.

Donations may be sent to our post office box or given to one of the officers of the organization.

ANN ARRUNDELL COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

BICENTENNIAL MEDALS AVAILABLE

The Ann Arrundell County Historical Society has announced they have only ten sets of their Bicentennial medals remaining and that the sets are available to interested collectors.

The obverse of the medal, designed by Annapolis artist Hope Siriano, depicts the resolute musket-armed footsoldier of the Revolution and is intended as a tribute to the gallent men from Maryland who fought so bravely in the Continental Army.

The reverse of the medal is an adaptation of the famous Chalmers shilling of 1783. This interesting coin was privately minted by John Chalmers, a goldsmith of colonial Annapolis, as his personal answer to the financial disorder afflicting the colonies during the war. His bold adventure identifies Annapolis, Maryland as the site of the first mint for silver coins in the new nation of the United States of America.

The 1½" medals were double struck in antique finish in quantities of 2500 bronze and 250 .999 fine silver serially numbered pieces.

Sets, one silver and one bronze, may be obtained at a price of $31.50, or a single bronze at a price of $6.00, postage and tax included from Mrs. John H. Smith, 901 Smith Road, Severn, Maryland 21144.

THE BALTIMORE ORIOLE SELF SERVICE DRAFT BEER TOKEN

by Will Depfer

Before the opening of the 1965 baseball season the Baltimore Orioles and the National Brewing Company had purchased eight token operated self service beer dispensers from the Texas Instrument Company. These dispensers were installed in section four at the Baltimore Stadium. They each had a tapped keg attached to them plus each had a keg in reserve.

21mm Br Rd

All a thirsty fan had to do is go to the cashier and for each 50 cents he received a self service beer token. He then took his token behind a cage, and when he inserted it in the dispenser he got 12 ounces of beer in a 16 ounce paper cup. The larger cup was to prevent spilling any beer on the return trip to his seat.

Going behind the cage was unpopular with the fans, so after only three seasons a more conventional system of dispensing beer was inaugurated. Of course not too many fans decided to keep their token instead of redeeming it for beer; so now Baseball, Beer, and Baltimore collectors search out the available obsolete tokens from another noble experiment.

FOURTH ANNUAL MEETING SOUVENIR TOKEN

"NEW ISSUES"

By Carl Neeley

At the last MD TAMS meeting, in conversations with different members, the same comment was heard several times--"I'm not really interested in all those new items, there are too many of them." A quick review of the 15 issues of the MD TAMS JOURNAL show information on only 5 current or new issues. Many of us spend a large amount of time researching the past to document information that would have been readily available at the time of manufacture and issue of the piece we are interested in. It would be for easier had the facts been recorded as they occurred. We are failing to do that now for those who might be interested in the future. Further, information on how to acquire available "new Issues" should be shared. Therefore I propose a new column be added to our journal under the same heading as this comment. This would record information for those of the future as well as us. We have members throughout the state and should be able to record the majority of all new issue items as they appear. I am willing to compile the information for this column if you will provide the following:

- (1) what the issue is called and
- (2) who (including address) is sponsoring/distributing the piece.

If you know any other information about the issue such as designer, manufacturer, composition, size, quantity made, purpose of issue, availability (method of ordering, etc., please send it also. Without the help of all members, this could be a very short lived effort. Send any information on "Maryland New Issues" to:

Carl Neeley
Rt. 1 Box 17-1
Leonardtown, Md. 20655

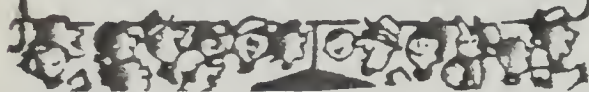

To begin this project
I offer the following.

THE CALVERT PENNY

The Tri-County Council for Southern Maryland provided the accompanying information on May 6, 1983. Note that the price is different from what you might have seen in earlier newspaper releases. The "Calvert Penny" has also been available at offices of the First National Bank of St. Marys for $1.00.

The Calvert Penny

Maryland 350th Anniversary Commemorative Coin

In commemoration of the 350th anniversary of the founding of Maryland in 1634, the Tri-County Council for Southern Maryland has issued a reproduction of the "Calvert Penny," originally minted in 1659 by Cecilius Calvert, Second Lord Baltimore, for circulation in the Maryland colony.

During the early years of the colony, trade was conducted on the principle of barter, and tobacco soon became the general medium of exchange. But as tobacco production increased and prices depreciated while rents remained fixed, the need for hard currency as a more stable medium of exchange became evident. Lord Baltimore had dies cut in London and coins struck there, and sent "a sample of the Maryland money" to the Governor and to his brother, Philip Calvert, Secretary of State at St. Mary's City, on October 12, 1659. Currency of several denominations was thus put into circulation in the Maryland colony during the 1660's and after, although it never succeeded in replacing the system of barter based on the tobacco trade.

Several of Lord Baltimore's pennies, among the earliest coins in American history, have been recovered at archeological sites in Southern Maryland, proving that the Lord Proprietor's money actually saw service in the New World.

This commemorative coin has been carefully reproduced from an original specimen. The Roman inspired obverse of the coin bears a left profile of Cecilius Calvert, surrounded by the legend, "CAECILIUS:DNS:TERRAE:MARIAE:&C," which translated from the Latin means, "Cecilius, (Calvert, Lord Baltimore) :Denarius (a reference to the Roman coin) :Maryland Etcetera (a reference to Lord Baltimore's other New World possession, Avalon, now Newfoundland). The reverse of the coin bears a ducal coronet from which fly two pennants. The original inscription on this side of the coin has been changed to "Maryland, 1634 1984" in commemoration of the 350th anniversary.

The coin is reproduced in bronze and measures 7/8" in diameter. These coins may be purchased for $2.00 each. Send check payable to the Tri-County Council, P.O. Box 301, Waldorf, Maryland 20601. Please specify the number of coins ordered. Allow four weeks for delivery.

KARSON'S RESTAURANT

By Russ & Jane Sears

In 1926 George and Mary Karson moved to Baltimore from Pittsburgh. They purchased Bill Karl's Hotel at 4706 Holabird Avenue and opened a small grocery and luncheonette. Mary ran the business which was expanded in 1933 with the enlargement of the dining room and addition of a bar. The Karsons looked to the future when they purchased land a few blocks away at 5100 Holabird Avenue, next to Frank Siejack's White Colonial House Restaurant.

During the early 1940's, both Karsons died. An interim manager ran the restaurant until their sons George and Rudy returned from the Army. As industrial expansion took place in the Dundalk area, the brothers built a bar on the land purchased by their parents. In 1949, they bought the Siejack property leading the way for further expansion which saw construction of the first part of what is the present Karson's Restaurant. Later additions were made until the building reached its present size in 1970.

THE COMMERCIAL CREDIT COMPANY 25TH ANNIVERSARY MEDALLION

BY

A. VERNON TAYLOR

LM-2

For the occasion of its 25th anniversary, the officers and employees of the Commercial Credit Company of Baltimore, Maryland, commissioned Baltimore sculptor Hans Schuler to design a silver plaque. This plaque, shown below, was presented to founder and then chairman of the board Alexander E. Duncan on June 12, 1937. Medals were struck carrying the same design as the two medallions mounted on the plaque.

Obverse Description:

Reverse Description:

Upper two-thirds of medal shows symbolic Industry with Cornucopia, left, and modern city with rising sun and date "1937", right. This surrounded by legend "$300,000 - 1912 INVESTED CAPITAL 1937 - $63,500,000". Lower one-third lists board of directors' names and date "1912".

Other Information:

Metal: Bronze                      Size: 3 inches in diameter (76mm)
Edge: Smooth, with "MEDALLIC ART CO. N. Y. BRONZE" incused.
Mint: Medallion Art Co., N. Y.
Designer: Hans Schuler, Baltimore, Maryland (His monogram appears on obverse under "1937").

The Commercial Credit Company was founded by Alexander E. Duncan on May 31, 1912. The company was underwritten by the old and well known banking house of Robert Garrett and Sons of Baltimore. It was housed in the Garrett building at South and Redwood streets in Baltimore.

The Commercial Credit Company originally began with buying open accounts from manufacturers and wholesale concerns. Soon the automobile industry began to grow and in 1916 the company entered the business of financing motor vehicles on installment plans, which was a new idea in those days. When auto sales sagged during World War I, the company absorbed several manufacturing companies to keep its money at work.

In 1924, the headquarters was moved to the First National Bank building at Light and Redwood streets, where it was in operation at the time of its 25th anniversary.

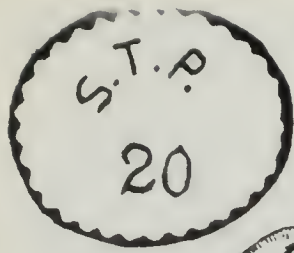

In later years, a new headquarters building was constructed at 300 Saint Paul Place, which houses the company today. In 1968, the Commercial Credit Company merged with Control Data Corporation.

A Continuing Study of Anne Arundel County Farm Pickers Checks.

The story of the picker check continues to grow. Seems as though little bits of information spring up all the time, often when we least expect it. As I am listed as a speaker on the Anne Arundel Community College speakers bureau, I was contacted in January to talk to the Davidsonville Ruritan Club. Their program chairman, a Mr. Benjamin Chaney, needed a program and didn't seem to care what the topic was, but noted that I had listed five topics so thought I could find an appropriate one for their club. Picker's checks was not one of the listed programs, but knowing the rural background of the Ruritan, I suggested the picker check story and before I could explain what a picker check was, he interrupted with,

"I know what those are, we used them on my Pappy's farm..." and on he went.....pouring through old cherished memories of his childhood on his father's farm. Needless to say, I spent a lovely evening with the Ruritan Club and while sharing the picker check story added several interesting contacts and uncovered more parts of the story itself.

Benjamin F. Chaney farmed Harry Brown's old farm from 1921 til 1933. The farm was located about half a mile from Crain Highway on old Chesterfield Road. They grew tobacco, beans, tomatoes and melons. Their pickers were blacks from the local area and were used to pick the beans and the tomatoes. The checks were used for both beans and tomatoes. I have no record of a B.F.C. check and Ben Chaney couldn't remember what initials were on his but,

"All our checks had holes in the, cause we used to keep them strung on a wire ring. When a picker turned in his goods, we'd unhook the wire and slip off enough checks to pay him for his goods."

Another mystery solved! Several picker checks are known to exist with a hole drilled or punched in them. The Schramms punched holes in their checks to use them as turkey tags as they converted to a turkey farm. But several other tokens, such as the W.D.K. checks, are found with neatly drilled holes. We know now that some checks were strung on wire which gives us a logical reason for the holes. Ben Chaney didn't know where his Pappy's old tokens were, but he promised to look around. He also thinks that they would have had his father's initials on them, so keep your eyes open for a B.F.C. check with a hole. I'll have more of Ben's stories to share later.

With just about all known collections inventoried, it is time to again run through the known listing. This list has grown substantially since our last run as more farmers and varieties have turned up than I ever thought possible... and they are still turning up! This is one of the exciting aspects of the picker check story and you are as apt to run across new varieties as anyone, so please keep your eyes open and let me know if you have any new varieties or if your information differs from what is listed. The listings that follow are the most complete listings ever put together on pickers checks. This should be close to the "final run" before we go to press with our story so your help is needed and greatly appreciated. You will note several tokens missing from this list which were included in our last listings. This is because all tokens known not to be from Anne Arundel County (which includes parts of Howard and Baltimore Counties) are not included. You will also note an increasing number of unknown farmers. We are screening old census records and hope to come up with some probable identifications. And now.....
